1	Cow	Rs 4/
2	Buffaloe	Rs 3/
3	Goat	Rs2/
4	Ass	Rs1/

10) The rates suggested appear rather high The owners who are mostly poor ryots are oftentimes helpless to prevent the straying away of their cattle into the neighbouring fields despite the utmost precaution taken The rates of fine should be such as to balance the need for preventing the depredation of crops by cattle and at the same time not making the owners feel the pinch of it too much

Sir,

I am directed to state that on several representations from various persons for enhancement of the fees levied on compounded cattle as a deterrent against depredations by them, the Cattle Trespass Act was amended as from 12-12-51 under Sec 3 of the Amendment Act 1951 the Scale of fees to be levied on every head of cattle is required to be prescribed by Govt. and it is also permissible to prescribe different Scales for different local areas

I am to request you therefore to bring this matter before the Corporation / municipal Council as an urgent subject to suggest to Govt the scales of free wheels they might consider appropriate for levy on imported Cattle in relation to the local conditions

The matter may be treated as urgent and a ~~very early~~ reply
